EX-POLICE OFFICIALS SENTENCED

Four New York Inspectors Get Year in Pen and $500 Each

NO DANGER OF APPEAL

As It Would Bring Prisoners to Trial on Bribery Charges—Taken to Blackwell This Afternoon

[Associated Press Telegram]
New York, May 9.—Dennis Sweeney, John J. Murtha, James E. Hussey and James F. Thompson, former police inspectors, convicted of conspiring to obstruct justice to check graft revelations involving them, were sentenced today to serve one year in the penitentiary and pay a fine of $500 each. This is the maximum sentence.

Up to the moment that sentence was pronounced the belief prevailed that one of the four would "sneak" to the district attorney on the "man higher up."

It is not yet too late for one of the inspectors to save himself by an eleven hour statement.

No move of any sort looking to an appeal was taken by any of the four prisoners today. An effectual clause against appeal is said by the district attorney to be in the form of nineteen indictments of bribery—a felony—recently returned against the quartette.

"If the prisoners appeal, it will bring them to trial on the bribery charges," is the attitude taken by the district attorney. No assurance has been given that they will not be brought on these indictments anyhow, but each of the prisoners lawyers is understood to have obtained the impression that the bribery charges will lie dormant in case there is no appeal.

The crime for which the four inspectors—highest uniformed officials in the department—were convicted was brought to light by the district attorney in his crusade against graft police investigation begun after the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

George A. Sipp, a resort keeper, told Mr. Whitman that he paid regular protection money to the inspectors. When it came time for Sipp to testify before the grand jury it was found he had fled the state. He was found at Atlantic City, brought back to New York and testified that Sweeney and his three co-defendants had raised a fund and hired him to remain out of the state.

The convicted men will be taken to Blackwell's Island this afternoon.

CLAIMS BABER WASN'T CHOICE IN LANGUAGE

[Associated Press Telegram]
Columbus, O., May 9.—Charges that Dr. E. A. Baber, superintendent of the Dayton state hospital, made improper remarks to women employees, that he spends much time away from the institution, and that he does not give patients and employees the consideration they are entitled to, and that he disobeyed duty generally, were filed with the state board of administration today by Dr. John V. Koch, who was first assistant superintendent of the hospital until April 1, when he was asked to resign by Dr. Baber.

Tariff Bill Goes To Senate After Passing House by Big Majority

[Associated Press Telegram]
Washington, May 9.—The Democratic tariff bill passed yesterday in the house with a majority of 142 votes went over to the senate today to be referred to the finance committee.

Finance sub-committees have had the bill under consideration informally and they are about ready to report to the full committee on the various schedules and administrative features. Few changes will be recommended by the sub-committees brought by protests of the rates which have been filed. Senator Simmons, chairman of the entire finance committee will call a meeting at once to consider the briefs of manufacturers and other interests before the bill is reported to the senate which probably will be about June 1.

No public hearings on the bill are to be granted though the Republicans plan to insist upon them after the bill has been reported.

The bill as passed by the house was brought to the senate with the usual formalities during the first hour of the session today and Senator Simmons at once moved to refer it to the finance committee.

REPORT ON FRIEDMANN PATIENTS

Made by Surgeons Who Conducted the Government's Investigation

CONFIDENCE IN REMEDY

Not Yet Justified is Opinion of Experts—Time Necessary to Evaluate Alleged Cure.

[Associated Press Telegram]

Washington, May 9.—The public health service observation so far into the condition of patients inoculated by Dr. F. F. Friedmann with his tuberculosis vaccine, do not "justify that confidence in the remedy which has been inspired by widespread publicity" in the opinion of the surgeons who have conducted the government's investigation.

The first authentic and official conclusion from the tests was announced here today before the national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis by Dr. John F. Anderson, director of the government's hygienic laboratory, and Dr. A. M. Stimson, another public health surgeon who were detailed to observe the progress of the Friedmann patients at Mount Sinai hospital in New York.

"We believe that at the present time," says the report, "we are not as yet in position to express an opinion based on the present conditions under observation. The disease for which the remedy is used is prolonged and is characterized by periods of advancement and retrogression. It is also one in which psychic influences are a powerful factor. Time is therefore necessary to properly evaluate the effect of therapeutic measures."

"We must not lose sight of the possible therapeutic value of this preparation and on the other hand it is necessary to guard against too great an optimism in respect to its merits. Without presenting in detail the condition of patients under observation, we are in a position to state that the facts thus far observed do not justify that confidence in the remedy which has been inspired by widespread publicity."

"In our opinion harm may have been done by this undue publicity insofar as it has lessened the confidence of tuberculosis persons in well recognized methods of treatment or interrupted through us and are constrained to advise against any lessening of those well known measures which have not only had effected cures but which have reduced the incidence of the disease. We are aware that Dr. Friedmann does not wish to be judged scientifically on newspaper stamps and he will undoubtedly disclaim responsibility for certain of those which have appeared."

"In our series of patients Dr. Friedmann has almost exclusively made use of the intramuscular method alone in pulmonary cases and a very considerable proportion of them have either developed no considerable infiltration at all or have suffered from abscess formation. It is evident, therefore, that a very considerable portion of these patients may expect their treatment at the hand of Dr. Friedmann to extend over a long period."

"Concerning the cultures submitted to us we may state that a series of (Continued on page 14, col. 4.)

FIGHT FOLLOWS ALTIZER'S SPIKING OF HARRY CLARK

Milwaukee, May 9.—Resenting a deliberate and successful attempt to spike him, Harry Clark, manager of the Brewers, took a wallop at Dave Altizer in the seventh inning of yesterday's game, and a bloody fight was the result, both men leaving the field with blood streaming from their faces. Clark and Altizer had a few words in the third inning, and both threatened to "get" the other at the first opportunity.

In the seventh after stealing second, Altizer set out for third. Clark bent over to take Marshall's throw and Altizer hurled himself feet foremost at the Brewer manager, one of his spikes cutting a deep gash in Harry's forehead and the other cutting his chest.

Clark jumped onto Altizer immediately and pummeled him while on the ground. Altizer aimed another kick at Clark and cut the side of his head. He finally shook the Brewer off, and they were fighting like a couple of bulldogs when players intervened.

Altizer did not deny last night that he deliberately spiked the Brewer. President Chivinton is expected here to make a personal investigation of the row.

AVIATOR KILLED AT LOS ANGELES THIS MORNING

[Associated Press Telegram]
Los Angeles, Calif., May 9.—(Bulletin)—Lieutenant J. D. Park, a military aviator, who started from San Diego this morning on a flight to Los Angeles, was killed at Olive, nine miles north of Santa Ana.

Lieutenant J. D. Park met his death in a fall of less than fifteen feet. He had alighted a quarter of a mile from the Olive school house on account of the heavy mist that confused him as to his bearings, and after giving a message to a little girl to telephone to Glenn Martin in Los Angeles, he arose again. Then he swooped over a low hill and crashed into a tree. He was dead when the little girl and her father reached his side.

JAPAN ENTERS PROTEST AGAINST ALIEN-LAND BILL

[Associated Press Telegram]
Washington, May 9.—Japan's formal protest against the California alien-land bill was submitted to Secretary Bryan at the state department early today by Viscount Chinda, in person. The protest will be placed before President Wilson and the cabinet by Secretary Bryan this forenoon that an answer may be promptly returned to the Japanese embassy.

Secretary Bryan was a little late in arriving at his office but five minutes after the appointed hour he was in conference with Viscount Chinda, who came to the state department at once. The conference lasted for half an hour, at its conclusion the secretary and the ambassador left the department together, the former going directly to the White House to submit to the president the communication which the ambassador had given to him and the ambassador returning to the embassy.

At noon Secretary Bryan left the cabinet meeting. "I have no statement to make at this time," was his only reply to all inquiries.

The cabinet remained in session and there were some intimations that some statement would come from the White House later. Shortly afterward, Secretary Bryan and the ambassador again met at the state department but their conference was necessarily short, the secretary had to take the 12:30 o'clock train for New York where he is to deliver an address tonight at a banquet.

Mr. Bryan said the conference with the ambassador would be resumed tomorrow upon his own return from New York. This was taken as an indication that the state department was not yet prepared, even after the brief consideration in the cabinet to make a final answer to the Japanese objections as presented today by the ambassador.

Other members of the cabinet refused without exception to discuss the situation further than to say the general subject has been gone over. There is a strong probability of a special cabinet meeting tomorrow to permit Mr. Bryan to lay before the President and his colleagues the results of his further conference with the Japanese ambassador.

EFFORT TO PLEASE ALL FACTIONS

Being Made by President in Distribution of Ohio Patronage

MAKES INVESTIGATION

Personally and is Perfectly Familiar With Situation—Ohio Delegation Adopts New Policy.

Washington, May 9.—The recent Federal appointments which have fallen to Ohio have indicated three points which tend to clarify somewhat the muddled situation in Ohio Democratic politics:

First, The President is trying to please all the factions in the Ohio Democratic party in his distribution of patronage.

Second, The "original" Wilson men are not going to have a monopoly of the good jobs to be passed out by the administration.

Third, Mr. Wilson has been making a personal investigation of the situation in Ohio and now understands the conflicts between the different factions in the state.

The appointment of Gaylord M. Saltzger as pension commissioner is cited as an example of the President's intention not to play factional favorites very strongly in Ohio. Saltzger was a Harmon man, yet this fact did not prejudice his case.

Saltzger was proposed by Representative T. T. Amshutz and seconded by Representative Goeke, who is having a contest with Garber over the distribution of postmasters in Darke county.

While the President did not name Dr. D. C. Gentsch of New Philadelphia, who had been endorsed by the Ohio delegation, he did not turn down the New Philadelphia man until assured by Senator Pomerene and others of the delegation that Saltzger would be every bit as acceptable as Gentsch.

It was the intention of Secretary of Interior Lane not to appoint a Grand Army man commissioner, but Saltzger made such a good impression on him when he was here for the inauguration that eventually the secretary was dissuaded from his purpose to ignore the veteran element. Disinterested friends finally prevailed upon the President to name a Grand Army man.

At once it was decided that the commissioner should come from Ohio, which is the residence of more Civil War pensioners than any other state.

The Saltzger case has resulted in a new policy in the Ohio delegation. Several of the members, the majority of them, are determined to make no more omnibus endorsements of candidates except under extraordinary circumstances. The Gentsch-Saltzger case led to much embarrassment. Gentsch got the endorsement of the delegation weeks before the inauguration.

U. S. DETECTIVES GUM SHOEING AT MOUNT VERNON

J. B. Galloway, an officer in the Internal Revenue department of the United States government, has been in Mt. Vernon for the past several days conducting an investigation of the alleged violation of the government liquor regulations. He intimated that much information was secured which will be placed before the federal grand jury in Columbus next month. It is alleged that indictments for perjury will probably result from the investigation.

SUSPENDED FINE WAS GIVEN DRUMM BY MAYOR SWARTZ

Ernest Drumm, a farmer, who was charged in police court several days ago with cruelty to animals, objects to the Advocate's statement that he was fined on the charge. The records of the Mayor's office show that the fine was assessed and that upon the court's order, the execution of the fine was suspended, which means that the amount assessed will not have to be paid unless the court so directs.

CITY ASKS AID OF GOVERNMENT

Clerk of Council Harold G. Franklin yesterday forwarded a letter to the war department at Washington, advising that department of the situation of the city council last Monday night when a resolution was adopted instructing the clerk to ask for the services of any army engineer in going over the local streams. The action is taken with a view of preventing the recurrence of the disastrous floods which alarmed the residents during March. Engineers are now in this state and it is probable that one of these will be ordered to Newark in response to Mr. Franklin's letter.

THREATS OF MILITANTS EFFECTIVE

Great Precautions Taken This Morning to Guard Officials

STATION WAS FILLED

With Protecting Force When Premier Asquith and Churchill Left for Long Cruise.

[Associated Press Telegram]

London, May 9.—The apprehension of the authorities over the threat by the militant suffragettes to eclipse their destructive acts of the past week was manifested by the precautions which were taken this morning when Premier Asquith and First Lord of the Admiralty Winston Spencer Churchill, accompanied by their wives left Waterloo on the Southwestern railroad to proceed to the coast to join the admiralty yacht Enchantress, on which they are to make a long cruise in the Mediterranean.

A large number of naval aides de camp, government departmental secretaries and railway officials surrounded the party formed by the cabinet ministers, and those who had come to bid them good-bye.

Beyond these there were another circle of detectives to protect the ministers from any undue attention by militant suffragettes or their male supporters. So great was the protecting force in the railway station that any demonstration by the suffragettes would have been impossible.

Mr. Asquith and Mr. Churchill intend to inspect the British garrisons and naval stations in the Mediterranean.

"General" Flora Drummond, the militant suffragette leader who collapsed twice in Bow street police court during yesterday's proceedings against the principal officers of the women's social and political union for conspiracy is very ill today from the effect of her privations during her "hunger strike" while under remand. Her physician has advised her to undergo an operation.

A militant suffrage "arson squad" was out this morning and succeeded in destroying by fire a large untenanted mansion near Barrow-in-Furness, Lancashire. A quantity of suffragette literature was scattered on the lawns surrounding the house.

Washington—A dispatch from Mexico says a small American colony at San Digoito, Mexico, resisted an attack yesterday.

Opinion of Judge Wanamaker In Dissenting With Majority of Court in Home Rule Case

[Associated Press Telegram]
Columbus, May 9.—"Did the people who asked for bread get a brick, and that of the gold variety, too, all under the label on the ballot—'municipal home rule'?"

"Is it possible that this home rule amendment so widely advertised through the constitutional convention and the campaigns that followed as a panacea for municipal bills is, as a former statesman, a half a century ago declared, just a 'd-d' barren idea as to all the villages and cities that are unwilling or unable to adopt a new form of government under a charter?"

These are some of the important questions set forth in the opinion of Judge R. J. Wanamaker, made public today, dissenting from the majority opinion of the supreme court in the Toledo home rule case decided by that body last Tuesday, in which it was held that the home rule provision of the new constitution is not half-executing and that before municipalities may exercise the increased powers it gives them they must either adopt charters or there must be legislation by the general assembly.

"I decisively dissent, not only from the judgment in this case, but also the syllabus, as well as the majority opinion by which it is sought to sustain such judgment and syllabus," says Judge Wanamaker in the opinion.

"DOWN AND OUTERS" HOTEL.

Banker to Erect $100,000 Structure as Memorial to Son.

Chicago.—A hotel for "down and out" men, to cost $100,000, will be erected by Charles G. Dawes, president of the Central Trust company of Illinois as a memorial to his son, Rufus Peabody
Dawes, who was drowned in Lake
Grenv on Sept. 5, 1912. Eventually
Mr. Dawes will erect a similar refuge for women of the same class.

These hotels had been projects which the father and son had planned to carry out together, and Mr. Dawes pledged himself to devote all his spare time to carrying out the work his son had long looked forward to.

"Lodging will be furnished at cost, not to exceed 5 cents," said Mr. Dawes.
"The doors of this hotel will never be we ask is that they promise to pay when they find work again. It will ex-father, where he imbibed the rudimentary knowledge of mathematics which was later to make him known

No More Alcoholic Liquor There After

Copenhagen.—At the end of the pre-natives or tourists to obtain alcoholic liquors in Iceland. Under the anti-spirit law permission was given to consume the present stock of liquors and it will all be gone by the end of the

The Danish government adopted the drastic prohibition laws because it was felt that the excessive drinking of the Icelanders was undermining the physical fitness of the people.

QUAKER CITY MAYOR WILL GO TO SCHOOL

To Learn How to End Holdup of City Finances.

Philadelphia.—Rudolph Blankenburg, the reform mayor of this city, and the members of his cabinet have decided to go back to school to take a course in political economy, so that they may be more competent to administer the affairs of the city.

The mayor and at least two members of his cabinet have arranged to go to Madison, Wis., to attend a course of lectures at the University of Wisconsin. The course, which is short and theoretical, is designed to solve the problems that confront modern municipalities. When the mayor and his directors return they expect to be able to ride roughshod over some of the municipal quagmires which have all but engulfed them to date.

The most trying difficulties are matters of finance, the mayor being desirous of getting enough funds to run the city, and members of councils having conveniently blocked every move.
The mayor acknowledges that if the lecture course will answer the question of how to whip in line belligerent councilmen he and his directors will feel that they have been amply repaid for their trip west.

Not only will Mayor Blankenburg and his advisers take the lecture course—which is to be jammed into three days—but the entire membership of the City club, an uplift organization which will take it through the southwest for the next year.

TO HAVE A NOISELESS WORLD

If Prediction of Harvard Otologist is Correct.

Cambridge.—A noiseless world, minus all clamor, is the boon foretold for coming generations by Dr. Clarence John Blake, Harvard's well known otologist.

"The world of tomorrow," said Dr.
Blake, "while not a soundless will be a practically noiseless one. The campaign now being waged by welfare committees and other associations, both indoors and outdoors, means that as the work branches out so much nearer shall we be to a quieter and healthier state of existence.

"Noise—at least loud noise—is needless. Impairment of the hearing facilities, aside from being caused by sound, is caused also by dust substances and injurious gases that come into contact with the mucous membranes in the nose and throat, thus distressing the organs of the inner ear and causing deafness.

"Occupations which may affect the ear are mining, stonecutting, engineering, stoking, metal industries, glass-blowing, manufacturing of bichromate of lead, dealing in old rags, horsehair and sawdust, matchmaking, flourmaking, diving and blowing of wind instruments. Mother-of-pearl cutting is the most dangerous of all to the hearing."

LICKING CROP IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY STARTS

INTEREST IS AROUSED IN CORN GROWING CONTESTS THIS YEAR.

Four Trips For Boys to Washington—Boys Should Write or See J. M. Farmer Now.

Representative citizens from various parts of the county gathered on Thursday night in the council chamber, in the Newark Trust building to hear an outline of the state department's plan for crop improvement, and to organize the Licking county movement under the name of the Licking County Crop Improvement society.

C. R. Wagner, a special representative of the state department of agriculture, took occasion to define the movement for improved crops and farming conditions in Ohio, and told what great success had been the reward of last season's crop contest.

He appealed to business and professional men of the city to join with the farmer in this means of bringing the municipalities and rural communities into a closer relationship with the ultimate object of better conditions for both. As he means to this end he declared the crop improvement contests have proven their worth.

The young farmer boy is the link between business interests of the city and the country, according to Mr. Wagner. "Let the farmer boy know what he can do on the soil of the old farm back home, and the problem of the cost of living is solved, the problem of the overcrowded city is solved and any number of other problems directly hinging on this situation," said he.

Licking county's bushel-per-acre corn production was a subject for comment. Mr. Wagner presented statistics from the state department showing what this county has done and then placed the total result along side of what the Buckeye corn growing boys did last year. The result was that Licking county showed a corn production of thirty-seven bushels to the acre, and the boys averaged on their acres eighty-five bushels.

Total value of Licking county crops was shown to be $3,073,966 of which the value of its corn was $1,215,472. From 69,708 acres the yield was 2,430,944 bushels.

Mr. Wagner had on display a number of samples of corn grown by boys of Ohio in last year's contest for the free trip to Washington.

At the conclusion of his remarks County Recorder J. M. Farmer who was chairman of the meeting sought the settlement of those present by a standing vote on the question of effecting a permanent organization to advance crop improvement in general, the coming corn contest in particular and the accompanying contest for girls.

The contest for girls as outlined by Mr. Wagner, has the same general object—interest in farm and home development—and would consist in competitions in bread, pie and jelly making for awards at the county fair.

Chairman Farmer then called on several persons for remarks. F. C. Evans, W. H. Smith, Mr. Slack and Mr. Smith of Granville and Mr. Hill

It is one thing to make soda crackers that are occasionally good.

It is quite another thing to make them so that they are always better than all other soda crackers, always of unvarying goodness.

The name "Uneeda"—stamped on every biscuit—means that if a million packages of Uneeda Biscuit were placed before you, you could choose any one of them, confident that every soda cracker in that package would be as good as the best Uneeda Biscuit ever baked. Five cents.

of Johnstown were among those who spoke in hearty approval of the plan outlined by Mr. Wagner. There was some suggestion of delay in bringing about an active organization at which the representative of the state department insisted that very early action be taken if Licking county wished to have its contests this year. It is likely that a number of subdivisions will be made throughout the county and that several distinct contests will be waged. It is possible for each township to have its own contest, although Mr. Wagner suggests that a grouping of townships might be more successful in this contest.

This matter of organizing the subdivisions will be taken up at an early time by the county society.

Following were the officers chosen at Thursday night's meeting:

President, J. M. Farmer; Vice Presidents, M. L. King, C. B. Slack, F. C. Evans and James J. Hill; Secretary and Treasurer, W. C. Metz; Trustees, W. C. Hall, A. H. Powell, Newark township; Charles Bone, Washington township; Henry Kussmaul, Granville; Alex. Wilson, Union township; W. B. Hoover, Perry; J. C. Williams, Hanover; Nelson Bounds, Union; J. M. Lambert, Newton; T. E. Adams, Newark township; C. B. Clark, Washington; C. B. Buxton, St. Albans township; Fred H. Stevens, Franklin; Orylle, Kiger, Madison; B. D. Jackson, Liberty; Carey Van Fossen, Bennington; Seth Albany, Jersey; W. C. Wells, Roe Emerson, W. H. Smith, Henry O. Norris, A. L. Norton, C. H. Sperry, C. L. H. Long, C. Harrington Davis, C. L. V. Holtz, W. L. Prout, and William Morgan, all of Newark city.

With the announcement made on Thursday night by the Granville Bank company's directors that they will guarantee the Washington trip to one boy, four trips are already assured as prizes to be offered youths of this county, trips having previously been promised by the Newark Trust company, W. A. Ashbrook and J. M. Farmer.

There will be a meeting of trustees, officers and those interested in the new society Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Newark Trust building, at which time the question of sub-division of the county will be considered.

BUCKEYE LAKE PARK TO OPEN SUNDAY, MAY 18

Varied Amusements Promised by Manager Will D. Harris for His Patrons During the Season.

For the twelfth season under the management of Will D. Harris, Buckeye Lake park, "the Atlantic City of Central Ohio," will make its bow to the public for the summer of 1918, one week from next Sunday. With all buildings redecorated and everything presenting the freshness that goes before the jostling crowds of picnickers, the park promises to be a gathering place more popular than ever.

The popular summer hotel, The Harris, will be opened May 18 under new management. Will Reest, former proprietor of the Virginia hotel in Columbus, and one of the best known hotel men in Central Ohio, will have charge of The Harris for this season. A modern dining room equipment has been provided for regular patrons and a thoroughly supplied lunch counter for transients.

Del Fisher's boat line has been increased with the addition of a number of new boats which will start on regular schedule between lake points on the opening day.

The dancing pavilion will be an attraction of more than usual drawing power this season, the management announces. Parker's Columbus colored singing orchestra will furnish the music all summer.

Cottagers are taking up their summer residence at the lake settlements and the resort is beginning to take on activities looking toward a big busy season of outing and amusement. Several big picnic excursions from over the state have already been contracted for the park this summer, all together insuring a successful summer with big crowds.

CHANGE IN JURIES FOR CIVIL CASES

Permits Nine Members to Return Verdict in Civil Cases—News of the Licking Courts.

On and after Wednesday, May 15, nine members of a jury, instead of twelve, will be permitted to return a verdict in civil cases. This law was passed last February and embodies some changes in the forms of verdicts which may be returned.

Where the verdict is not a straight decision for either plaintiff or defendant, but is to be based out on a petition and cross-petition, jurors will be obliged to calculate the amount of money, if any, to which the plaintiff is entitled, the amount due the defendant and the difference between the two.

It is believed that under the new law justice will be expedited, inasmuch as it makes it impossible for two or three persons to hang the jury.

Federal Court Jurors.

N. E. Dennman of Hanover, T. J. Conner of Dresden, Benj. True of Shawnee are summoned for federal grand jury service in Columbus. Among the U. S. petit jurors are T. D. VanFossen of Johnstown, Frank Conklin of Delaware, Roy Harper of Zanesville.

THE ASHLAND PRESS.

The Press of Ashland, O., one of the oldest papers in the northern part of the state, has just moved into new quarters, occupying the first floor of a three-story building built especially to furnish an up-to-date plant for the paper. The building is constructed of brick and reinforced concrete, the second and third floors being arranged in suites of five rooms. The Press occupies all of the first floor with its business offices, editorial rooms and mechanical department. New equipment was installed to bring the plant up to a high standard of perfection and the Press is in better shape than ever to turn out its very excellent paper. The machines are all operated by electric motors. Taken as a whole, the plant is one of the best equipped in the state and the Press is to be congratulated for its progressiveness.

WOULD MEAN CHEAPER ROADS

Representatives in congress and the senators from this state can strike an effective blow for cheaper roads and asphalt streets by insisting that the new tariff law shall admit asphalt free of duty. There is no question of protection involved, for there is no lake or natural asphalt in the United States. The competing domestic materials, such as oil asphalt and tar, are so much lower in price than the imported product that they need no protection. In fact, about all the existing tariff—$3.00 a ton on refined asphalt and $1.50 on crude—has done is to result in adding these amounts to the taxpayer's bill for good roads and streets. The tariff tax is not only added to the price of the imported product, but it makes it possible for the producers of similar materials to increase their charges as well without coming into price competition with the imported asphalt.

Some kind of bituminous "binder" to hold the stone in place is used in most roads in these days of heavy traffic. To make roads of this kind as cheap as possible everybody interested in the good roads movement ought to work for tariff-free bitumens.

The saving that will result from the removal of the tariff will not go to the asphalt people. They have promised to reduce their prices by the amount of the tariff if it is cut out, and trade considerations would make them do this in any case. The saving will go to the taxpayers, who can spend the money on additional construction that they could not otherwise afford, or they can keep the money in their pockets. Their bills for roads and streets have gone up tremendously in recent years; there are millions more to pay, and there seems to be no good reason for adding to these millions by continuing the tariff tax on good roads and streets.

Modern surgery reduces suffering to the minimum. But the operation of separating a man from his money continues to be painful to the victim.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Sleeping in the Open.

It is better to sleep on a sleeping porch that is screened in than it is to sleep inside of a room, however wide open the windows may be kept. But it is still better to sleep on the porch which is not screened in at all or on the roof under the open sky, where the air may circulate most freely about the body. The person who becomes accustomed to sleeping out will find that he requires no more coverings than he would in the house. In fact, on a chilly night he will be likely to find himself much colder in his chamber than he will be in his porch or roof bedroom. The free circulation of air about the body is instrumental in maintaining warmth. The warmth is also greater inside of the body by reason of a large absorption of oxygen.

Nana Sahib, a Man of Mystery

HE name "Nana Sahib," a half century ago, was one of terror and loathing all over the civilized world. Today Americans have half forgotten it. Several million dusky Orientals secretly or openly hailed Nana Sahib as a deliverer and a true patriot. A still larger number of white people declared him a fiend. He was the foremost figure in the Sepoy Mutiny. His terrible work ended, he apparently vanished from the face of the earth.

His name was not Nana Sahib. That was merely his title. (His name was Dhundo Punt). He was the son of a high caste Hindoo and was born about 1825. When he was a baby he was adopted by Bhajee Rou, prince of the Maharattas; and in 1851 he succeeded his adopted father as prince. Bhajee had been lord of wide estates and had received a yearly pension of $450,000 from the British government. At his death the pension was stopped and the government seized much of his land.

This angered Nana Sahib, who had hoped to inherit all of Bhajee's wealth. He sent an agent to England to urge his rights. But all he could secure from the British was permission to hold the barren title of prince and to rule the fortress town of Bithoor, near Cawnpore.

If Nana felt resentment at this lopping off of his power he showed no outward sign of it. He came of a race that knew how to hide its feelings and to await the right moment for revenge.

So, instead of sulking in his fortress or joining in the thousand foolish, hopeless native plots that were forever stirred up against the white men, he became an "English" as he could. He spoke the language and tried to follow the customs of the British. He mingled as much as he was allowed to in English society at the India garrison towns.

When the callow English youths turned up their noses at his pretensions or sneered at him as a mere native, he bore all such slights patiently and redoubled his efforts to copy the ways of his white masters. He succeeded. Every one believed him devoted to England.

Then, in 1857, came the Sepoy Mutiny. Most of England's white regiments had been summoned away from India to the Crimean War, leaving the country chiefly garrisoned by Sepoy, or native troops. The religious fanaticism of these native soldiers was so cleverly worked upon by Nana and other secret agents that they rose in a body against the English.

Nana, when the mutiny broke out, declared himself ready to die in the defense of his British friends. They trusted him absolutely. But as soon as the uprising showed signs of success he cast aside the mask of loyalty, placed himself at the head of a Sepoy army, and proceeded to wreak horrible vengeance for his real or fancied wrongs.

He slew every white man, woman or child that fell into his hands. Then he marched against the plucky little British garrison at Cawnpore. The garrison held out as long as it could, then on Nana's promise to spare them all and to send them to a place of safety, the starving white men at length surrendered. This was on June 27, 1857. Nana ordered the garrison to march out of the city and to board a line of boats awaiting them at the river's edge. No sooner were the boats afloat than by Nana's orders the helpless occupants were fired upon. Nearly every one of them was shot or drowned. Those who reached land alive suffered the worst fate of all. The women and children had been herded separately in an enclosed space. They were now killed and their bodies thrown into a great well.

Battle after battle Nana fought with the white troops during the next few months, almost always being beaten in fair fight, but continuing to massacre any small detachments of English he could find. His wily brain and heartless cruelty made him a scourge to the British until the whole Mutiny was stamped out.

Then England wreaked fearful vengeance on her crushed foes. Native leaders were tied to the cannon's mouth and blown to pieces. Other cruelties were inflicted that could be partly excused only when one remembered that the avengers were mad with anguish over the brutal murders of their wives and children.

But, while other and lesser conspirators suffered punishment, Nana Sahib escaped. To this day no Englishman knows what became of him, whether he died years ago or is still living in luxurious safety in some Oriental land.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

The Story Of the Swan Knight.

The Knight Said Goodby to Elsa.

THE story hour was at hand, and Jack and Evelyn took care daddy did not forget it. Mother was playing very softly on the piano in the next room.

"She seems to like that music," Evelyn said. "She plays it more than anything else."

"Does she?" daddy smiled. "They played that piece on the big organ in the church when mother and I were married. I'm glad she likes it."

"It's a pretty nice piece. Is there any story to it?" Jack asked.

"Well, yes; there is quite a story. It's taken from a music story written by a very great musician called Richard Wagner. He did not make up anything but the music. The story had been told over and over in Germany for hundreds of years. He made it over so it could be sung with his music."

"The story was about the swan knight whose name is Lohengrin. Princess Elsa, a lovely young girl, was in great trouble. Wicked people who wanted to get her out of the way had said that Elsa had killed her young brother, the prince of the country. The body of the prince had never been found. All that was known was that one day the lad went out and was seen no more. If Elsa were dead her uncle, who was married to Ortrud, a wicked enchantress or witch, would have been prince. It was Ortrud who made all the trouble."

"The lovely Princess Elsa was to be tried for the death of her brother. She was in despair when down the river came floating a beautiful boat drawn by a swan. In the boat stood a knight wearing shining armor of silver and with a white plume on his head."

"This was Lohengrin, the swan knight, and when he stepped on shore he said that he knew that Princess Elsa did not kill her brother and that he was ready to fight any one that said she did."

"Lohengrin proved to the people that Elsa was innocent. Then he asked her to marry him. The march which mother plays is the one played for the wedding of Lohengrin and Princess Elsa in the music story."

"Only one thing Lohengrin made Elsa promise, and that was that she would never ask who he was or from whence he came. But Ortrud worked on Elsa until she asked her husband the forbidden question. Then Lohengrin told Elsa that he must go back to his home. Very sadly he bid her farewell. The swan boat again came down the river, but when it reached the shore the swan became a young man—the prince, Elsa's brother, whom the wicked Ortrud had changed to a swan. Then Lohengrin got into the boat and sailed away, and he never came back, for Elsa's disobedience had broken the spell that made it possible for a fairy knight to stay with mortals."

Lack of Appetite

When you have no appetite and even the sight of food is nauseating, you will have to build up your blood to get lasting relief. No amount of dieting, stimulating drugs or any treatment that overloads the blood will help you for any length of time.

You can, however, always build up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can be certain they will make the blood richer and purer with every dose. This healthy blood will help to make your stomach strong and well. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills offer lasting benefit to every sufferer from indigestion.

Mrs. Curtis Sibley, of No. 71 West LaVill street, Wooster, Ohio, says: "Overwork brought on stomach trouble from which I suffered for six years. My blood was in bad condition and nothing that I ate agreed with me. I would have spells when my heart palpitated so that I would have to go and lie down. The constant suffering made me nervous and weak. Our doctor did not help me and I was discouraged until I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A few boxes made a great change. I found that I could eat without distress and felt better in every way."

Send for the free diet booklet "What to Eat and How to Eat." It tells you how to get rid of gas on the stomach, sour stomach, acid stomach, nervous dyspepsia and all forms of indigestion. It also contains a chapter on the treatment and cure of constipation.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all druggists at 50 cents per box or six boxes for $2.50 or they will be sent, postpaid, upon receipt of price by the

JAPANESE ARE STRONG IN WAR

Fighters From Start to Finish, Say Knowing Ones.

WELL DRILLED AND LOYAL.

Their Patriotism Almost Equals That of the Moslems Who Fight for the Name of Their Prophet, and They Are Alert and Intelligent—Small Likelihood of Trouble.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 9.—[Special.]—Possibility of a brush with the Japanese has caused discussion of the Japanese soldiers and sailors by those who know them pretty well, and there is not a person who has observed them closely who does not say that they are fighters from start to finish. More than that, the Japs are well disciplined and well drilled.

The officers who saw the Japanese fighting the Russians assert that the little fellows are neat, alert, intelligent, and drill like clock work. Besides that, they seem to have an intense patriotism, equal to that almost of the Moslems who fight for the name of Mohammed. Altogether the impression prevails that in case we ever do have any trouble with Japan there will be real fighting for both the army and navy.

Security in Washington.

But notwithstanding all the talk that is heard there is general security in Washington and an abiding faith that war will not come. It is expected that Japan may denounce and abrogate the present treaty with the United States as an evidence of displeasure and as a sop to the discontented and fiery people of that country, but that the wise men of that country will not allow war as a result of the legislation in California.

Don't Like "Militia"

The soldiers of the national guard, the second line of defense in this country, are tiring of the name "militia," by which they are so often called and which is the constitutional and lawful name, although national guard is coming slowly into use. Strictly speaking, the "militia" is that citizen soldiery between the ages of eighteen and forty-five which is liable to military service. The national guard are enlisted state troops.

Underwood Confident.

Replying to an insinuation that the tariff bill might be materially amended in the senate and the house forced to accept the changes, Chairman Underwood only smiled and remarked, "I am not a prophet, but I will venture the assertion that this bill will not be changed very much anywhere and will become a law in very much its present form." The fact that the western senators failed to make any impression on President Wilson indicates that Underwood knows what he is talking about.

After a Scalp.

The Colorado Democratic congressmen seem to have decided to take the scalp of Congressman Mondell of Wyoming. They have "gone after" him in speeches and announced that they will "go after" him in the next campaign. They promise to tell the people "all they know about him." Mondell, who has represented Wyoming for twenty years, smiles complacently at these threats and continues his former ways.

Displayed "Boynishness."

There were times when the tariff debate in the house developed a spirit of "boynishness." Members talked back and forth at each other in a way to show that they are what John Sharp Williams called "boys grown up." Lansley and Thomas of Kentucky indulged in what might be termed "house repartee" over moonshine whisky and its use. At another time Thomas took a fling at Underwood's red hair and at Mann's whiskers. Mann came back with something about "bewiskered" Kentuckians. Bits of brightness, so to speak, are flung about from time to time of a similar character. And all the time Underwood kept driving, driving, pushing, pushing, the bill forward, never losing his patience or losing a single item in the bill.

Fordney's Relationship.

Congressman Fordney of Michigan was defending a duty on shingles, although asserting that he was not in the business. "I am a lumberman," he said. "I am not a shingle manufacturer." My wife had an uncle whose cousin had a brother married to a girl whose uncle was in the shingle business.

"Can you say that again and say it the same way?" asked Palmer of Pennsylvania.

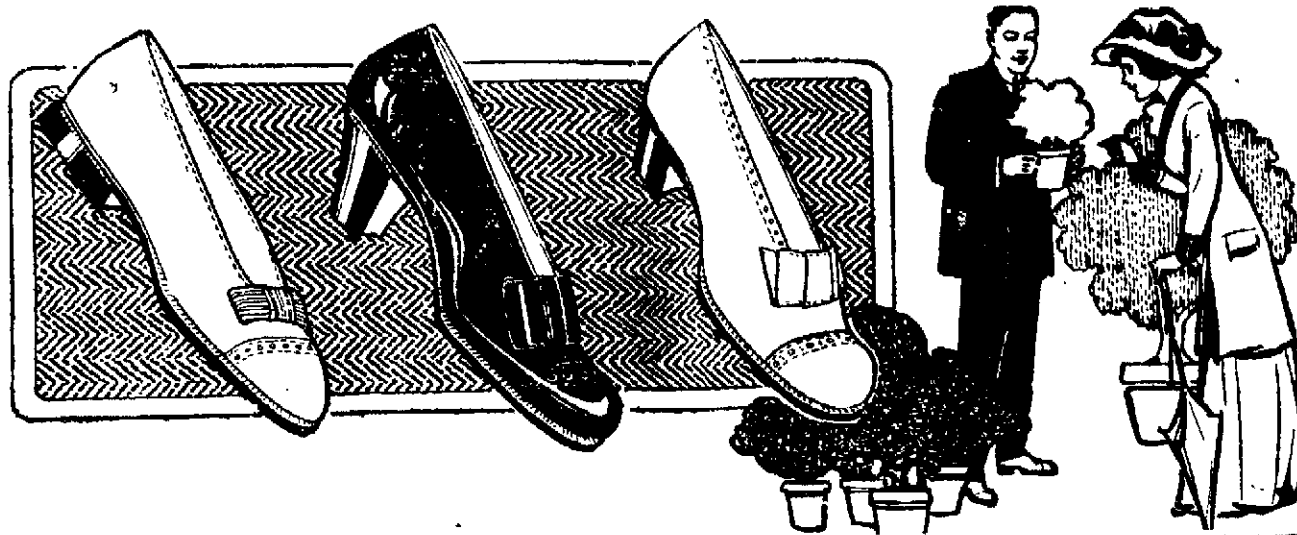

Senate or House Leader.

Oscar W. Underwood, like Champ Clark a few years ago, must determine whether he wants to stay in the house or try for the senate. Clark might have been elected to the senate if he had not preferred the speakership, with the further possibility of winning the presidency.

Until the new regime in the house few men would have been willing to remain as house leader if there was a senatorship in sight. But Underwood is very powerful in the house now, and he may decide that he would rather remain in his present position, with the possibilities of what might happen three years hence, rather than try for the seat in the senate.

"Learning to play it" is about as far as anybody gets with the flute.

WORK ON PIKE HELD UP BY ATTACHMENT

With a steam roller under arrest and nearly a score of armed men guarding other road-making paraphernalia along Linnville pike from Tibbitt's school house for a distance of two miles, local authorities appear satisfied. Road Contractor Wheelchell of Columbus much vexed and a number of his former employees hopeful.

For two days now the steam roller has ceased to roll, the scraper ceased to scrape and numerous ploughs and other articles for pike workmen have languished in the constabulary grasp of one Robert Forgrave, representative of Justice of the Peace D. M. Jones of Newark, who some time since placed a detaining hand on said steam roller, road scraper, et al., with the stereotyped words: "Consider yourself under arrest. You are my prisoners."

Fact is, Robert tried to be unofficial, but steam rollers are difficult to arrest, especially if they are in motion. This was a peaceable steam roller, however, and there was no trouble.

The reason for it all is that employees of the road contractor have refused to work until they receive some more pay they allege is due to them. Contractor Wheelchell can't collect from the county commissioners until the contract is fulfilled, "and there you are," says Constable Bob.

Meanwhile workmen have volunteered to serve with the deputy constables in preventing abduction of the steam roller, steam shovel and other equipment in violation of the attachment order of the court.

TRICKS DOCTOR TO SAVE HIM

J. D. Byrne, a San Francisco business man, for a long time President of the California Pig Products Co., heard that a friend, a young physician, was fading under a hard case of Bright's Disease. The doctor becoming thoroughly discouraged, Byrne induced him to consent to use something he would take to him.

Byrne went to the nearest drug store, bought a bottle of Fulton's Renal Compound, soaked the label off and took it to the patient. He began to mend and Byrne got him another bottle and still another.

When recovery was in sight he was told it was Fulton's Renal Compound. And this is not the first case of this kind. A number of cases have been reported in which the patients were so certain nothing could be done that they too had to be deceived to put them in the way of recovery.

There is no escape whatever from the fact that Bright's Disease is being cured by Fulton's Renal Compound. If you have Bright's Disease you owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Renal Compound before giving up. It can be had at F. D. Hall's, Druggist.

Ask for pamphlet on our investigation into the curability of Bright's Disease or write John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco.

Oreste Sciallento, Who Killed Two Policemen

Gang war has begun again in New York, and this time and for the first time in many years one of the gun men has killed a policeman. Oreste Sciallento, a miserable little Sicilian, a consumptive and an opium fiend, shot an enemy, John Rizzo, who threatened to kill him, and in getting away from the scene killed two policemen. Now he is sought in every part of the United States. It is one of those cases in which policemen of every city will take special interest, so there is a probability that the murderer will be found.

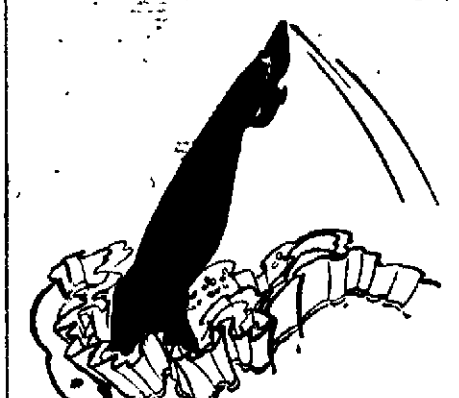

These gangsters have so little courage that they seldom go on a gunning expedition till they are filled up with opium. By the time they have smoked six pills they have become so desperate that they will kill policemen or anyone else when it is necessary for their safety. Sober, they cringe when a policeman comes in sight.

That Corn is a Sure "Goner" Now

"GETS-IT," the New-Plan Corn Cure, Gets Any Corn Surely, Quickly.

You'll say, "It does beat all how quick 'GETS-IT' got rid of that corn. It's almost magic!" "GETS-IT" gets every corn, every time, as sure as the sun rises. It takes about 2 seconds to apply it. Corn pains stop, you forget the corn, the corn shrivels up, and it's gone! Ever try anything like that? You never did. There's no more fussing with plasters that press on the corn, no more salves that take off the surrounding flesh, no more bandages. No more knives, files or razors that make corns grow, and cause danger of blood poisoning. "GETS-IT" is equally harmless to healthy or irritated flesh. It "gets" every corn, wart, callus and bunions you've got.

"GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists at 25 cents a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by L. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Lack of Appetite

When you have no appetite and even the sight of food is nauseating, you will have to build up your blood to get lasting relief. No amount of dieting, stimulating drugs or any treatment that overloads the blood will help you for long length of time.

You can, however, always build up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can be certain they will make the blood richer and purer with every dose. Thus healthy blood will help to make your stomach strong and well. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills either last long or they don't last at all.

Mrs. Curtis Sidle, of No. 71 West Larwill street, Wooster, Ohio, says: "Overwork brought on stomach trouble from which I suffered for six years. My blood was in bad condition and nothing that I ate agreed with me. I would have spells when my heart palpitated so that I would have to go and lie down. The constant suffering made me nervous and weak. Our doctor did not help me and I was discouraged until I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A few boxes made a great change. I found that I could eat without distress and felt better in every way."

Send for the free diet booklet "What to Eat and How to Eat." It tells you how to get rid of gas on the stomach, sour stomach, acid stomach, nervous dyspepsia and all forms of indigestion. It also contains a chapter on the treatment and cure of constipation.

JAPANESE ARE STRONG IN WAR

Fighters From Start to Finish, Say Knowing Ones.

WELL DRILLED AND LOYAL.

Their Patriotism Almost Equals That of the Moslems Who Fight For the Name of Their Prophet, and They Are Alert and Intelligent—Small Likelihood of Trouble.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 9.—[Special.]—Possibility of a brush with the Japanese has caused discussion of the Japanese soldiers and sailors by those who know them pretty well, and there is not a person who has observed them loosely who does not say that they are fighters from start to finish. More than that, the Japs are well disciplined and well drilled.

The officers who saw the Japanese fighting the Russians assert that the little fellows are neat, alert, intelligent, and drill like clock work. Besides that, they seem to have an intense patriotism equal to that almost of the Moslems who fight for the name of Mohammed. Altogether the impression prevails that in case we ever do have any trouble with Japan there will be real fighting for both the army and navy.

Security in Washington.

But notwithstanding all the talk that is heard there is general security in Washington and an abiding faith that war will not come. It is expected that Japan may denounce and abrogate the present treaty with the United States as an evidence of displeasure and as a sop to the discontented and fiery people of that country, but that the wise men of that country will not allow war as a result of the legislation in California.

Don't Like "Militia."

The soldiers of the national guard, the second line of defense in this country, are doing of the name "militia," by which they are so often called and which is the constitutional and lawful name, although national guard is coming slowly into use. Strictly speaking, the "militia" is that citizen soldiery between the ages of eighteen and forty-five which is liable to military service. The national guard are enlisted state troops.

Underwood Confident.

Replying to an insinuation that the tariff bill might be materially amended in the senate and the house forced to accept the changes, Chairman Underwood only smiled and remarked, "I am not a prophet, but I will venture the assertion that this bill will not be changed very much anywhere and will become a law in very much its present form." The fact that the western senators failed to make any impression on President Wilson indicates that Underwood knows what he is talking about.

After a Scalp.

The Colorado Democratic congressmen seem to have decided to take the scalp of Congressman Mondell of Wyoming. They have "gone after" him in speeches and announced that they will "go after" him in the next campaign. They promise to tell the people "all they know about him." Mondell, who has represented Wyoming for twenty years, smiles complacently at these threats and continues his former ways.

Displayed "Boyishness."

There were times when the tariff debate in the house developed a spirit of "boyishness." Members talked back and forth at each other in a way to show that they were what John Sharp Williams called "boys grown up." Langley and Thomas of Kentucky indulged in what might be termed "house repartee" over moonshine whiskey and its use. At another time Thomas took a fling at Murdoch's red hair and at Mann's whiskers. Mann came back with something about "bewhiskered" Kentuckians. Bits of brightness, so to speak, are flung about from time to time of a similar character. And all the time Underwood kept driving, driving, pushing, pushing, the bill forward, never losing his patience or losing a single item in the bill.

Fordney's Relationship.

Congressman Fordney of Michigan was defending a duty on shingles, although asserting that he was not in the business. "I am a lumberman," he said; "I am not a shingle manufacturer." My wife had an uncle whose cousin had a brother married to a girl whose uncle was in the shingle business.

"Can you say that again and say it the same way?" asked Palmer of Pennsylvania.

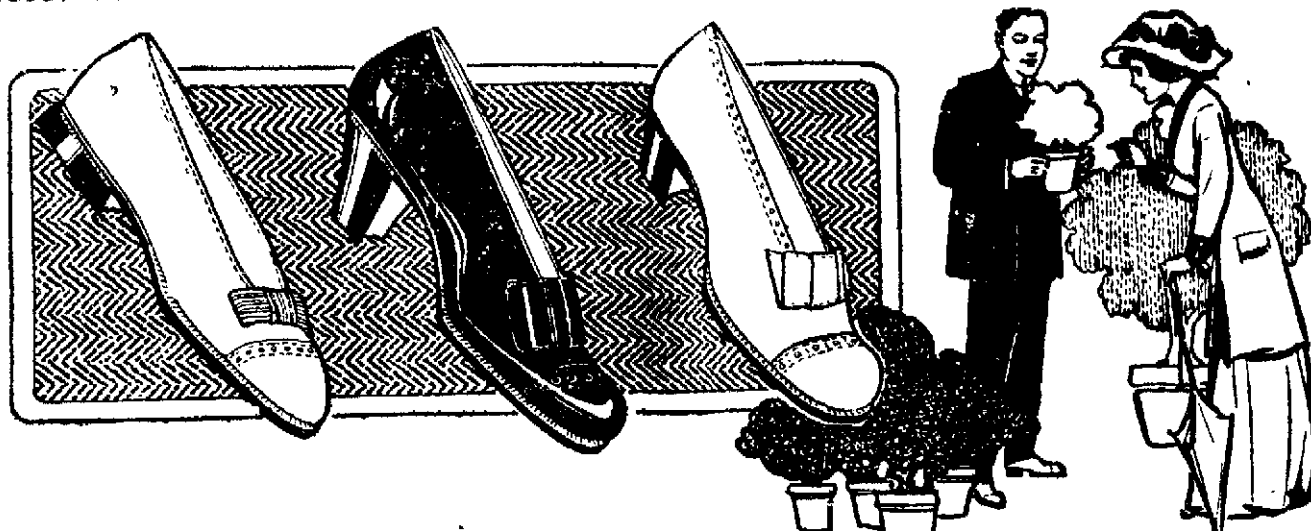

Senate or House Leader.

Oscar W. Underwood, like Champ Clark a few years ago, must determine whether he wants to stay in the house or try for the senate. Clark might have been elected to the senate if he had not preferred the speakership, with the further possibility of winning the presidency.

Until the new regime in the house few men would have been willing to remain as house leader if there was a senatorship in sight. But Underwood is very powerful in the house now, and he may decide that he would rather remain in his present position, with the possibilities of what might happen three years hence, rather than try for the seat in the senate.

"Learning to play it" is about as far as anybody gets with the flute.

He gave McGraw and the Giants an unpleasant surprise on the opening day, when he opposed Tesreau and shut them out with two hits.

UNITED DOCTORS CREATE INTEREST

NON-SURGICAL SYSTEM OF MEDICINE HAS ACCOMPLISHED UNPRECEDENTED RESULTS.

BEST MODERN METHODS USED. Maintain Their Own Laboratory at Newark Institute—Free Offer.

Demonstrating daily how needless are operations in innumerable cases, the United Doctors, who have their Newark Institute on the second floor of the Arcade building, are creating considerable thinking among sick people who have been taught that surgery was the cure for the majority of ailments.

Cases of every description are being shown such unlooked for results with the "United" system of medicine, viz: The Homeopathic, the Allopathic and Eclectic with the United Doctors have made into their "United" treatment and is being seriously debated by the public to ascertain what this new system of medicine will do for them in the future instead of submitting to the knife.

Cases of gall stones, goitre, rectal troubles, rupture and other supposedly surgical cases are proven but ordinary ailments when treated by the United Doctors. Other diseases, such as diseases of the blood, liver, kidneys and bladder no longer hold fear for the ailment.

The United Doctors maintain their own laboratory at the institute here in which they compound their medicines for each patient. This insures the best and purest of medicines at a minimum cost and assures each patient fresh drugs at all times.

At the present time and until May 20, there is a special offer in celebration of the tenth anniversary of the first United Doctors Institute in this country, being made to all who call upon them, which is as follows: free consultation, free examination and free treatment, except for the bare cost of medicine and distribution to all cases accepted for treatment. Cases that are incurable will not be accepted for treatment at any time. It must be remembered, however, that many cases that are incurable under old systems of medicine are readily curable with the new treatment.

Sufferers from stomach trouble, asthma, constipation, dropsy, indigestion, loss of nerve force, catarrh, deafness, dyspepsia or other ailments cannot do better than to consult the United Doctors immediately.

West Virginia Governor Calls Senator Kern Liar

The fiery Governor Hatfield of West Virginia has gone so far in defending his state against the attack of Senator Kern and others who want an investigation of labor conditions among the miners there that he had called the leader of the majority is the United States Senate" a liar. Senator Kern has a resolution before the upper chamber for an investigation. He believes that what constitutes peonage exists in some of the mining districts of the state. "I wish to state that Senator Kern's charge is a fabrication out of whole cloth," said the governor. "He said one newspaper man was ejected from the trial of 'Mother' Jones. This is a wilful and deliberate lie on the part of those who informed the senator."

SAYS GRAY HAIR VANISHES AFTER APPLYING SAGE TEA

A Mixture of Sage and Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur no one can tell, because it's done so naturally; so evenly. It is also splendid to remove dandruff, cure itching scalp and stop falling hair.

Preparing this mixture, though, at home is a messy and troublesome task. For about 50 cents a bottle you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Some druggists put this mixture up themselves but make it too sticky, so insist you want "Wyeth's" then there will be no disappointment.

You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and draw it through your hair taking one small stand at a time. Do this at night and by morning all gray hair disappears and after another application or two becomes beautifully darkened and more glossy and luxuriant than ever. You will find Gray stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and you'll look years younger. Inquiry shows all pharmacists in town here sell lots of it. Halls Drug Store, 10 North Side Square, Agent.

The Human Procession

BY O. TERRENCE

James Matthew Barrie, perhaps the best loved of living novelists, will today be the recipient of congratulatory letters and messages from admirers all over the world, for this is the fifty-third birthday of the sad-faced, gentle, lovable father of "Peter Pan." That Miss Made Adams should have been so successful in "Peter Pan" and "What Every Woman Knows" was not remarkable, for in spirit the dramatist and the actress are very much akin. Mr. Barrie is shy and retiring of disposition, almost to the point of bashfulness. Miss Adams has fought and won a continual battle against a natural diffidence and tendency toward stage fright. Indeed, there are yet times when America's most popular actress has to bring to bear all of her remarkable fund of will power to force herself to face her audience. Mr. Barrie dislikes public attention, and avoids interviews whenever possible—although himself once an interviewer. The same is true of Miss Adams, and, although thousands of magazine and newspaper articles have been written about her, the true inwardness of her life remains a mystery.

Mr. Barrie began his career as a "pressman," or reporter, in Nottingham, England. He was an excellent newsgatherer, although he had to "kick himself up stairs" whenever he was sent to get an interview. Nor is this experience exceptional. The popular conception of the reporter as a person armed with sublime assurance and gigantic nerve is often erroneous. Some of the most brilliant newspaper men of today, on both sides of the Atlantic, are totally lacking in "cheek" and "brass," and always find interviewing much more painful to themselves than to their victims. Many a reporter can say, with the utmost veracity, "This is going to hurt me much more than it will hurt you."

Mr. Barrie's first novel, "Better Dead," was published twenty-six years ago. It was followed by "When a Man's Single," in reality autobiographical and dealing with his own literary experience. "A Window in Thrums," "My Lady Nicotine" and "The Little Minister" followed in rapid succession, and established the right of their author to rank as one of the world's foremost novelists. "Peter Pan," published in 1904 and soon afterward dramatized, made a fortune for Mr. Barrie, made Pauline Chase famous, and added greatly to the reputation of Maude Adams. Mr. Barrie is the wealthiest playwright in the Empire, and it is likely that his fortune will be considerably augmented by his newest play, "The Legion of Leonora."

Today is the birthday of two English barons whose names are similar—Lord Howard de Walden, who is thirty-three, and Lord Howard of Glossop, who is fifty-four. Thomas Evelyn Ellis is the eighth Baron Howard de Walden, and is the holder of a title that dates from the sixteenth century and has been worn by many distinguished soldiers and diplomats. He is a multi-millionaire, with artistic inclinations, and has written several plays and composed an opera, "The Children of Don." The latter was produced by Oscar Hammerstein, at the expense of the author, Francis Edwards, is the second Baron Howard of Glossop, and is the son of a deputy earl-marshal of England. He has been twice married, each wife giving him one son and one daughter. His youngest daughter, the Hon. Frances Fitzalan Howard, recently became the bride of Arthur Leigh Bennett, a young officer of the Coldstream Guards.

The Ice Bill Tells

Great claims have always been, and always will be, made for all makes of Refrigerators.

But the ice bill tells the story.

It is not so much the first cost of the refrigerator as the "up-keep," the cost of running it that counts.

So the ice bill tells the story.

And that is where the COLD STORAGE REFRIGERATOR is strongest—in fuel saving. It is the insulation, as well as attractiveness—and it is reasonable in price.

We are demonstrating it at the store.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Friends of the Association will be glad to learn that the boarding department is proving so popular that the house is completely filled with business girls who are finding here a happy and sheltering home.

The association is reaching out to every girl in the city. During the past month parties have been given for girls employed in the ten-cent stores, private families, and the HERSHEY factory clubs will be formed later for different groups until all of the centers employing girls have been reached. Many of the girls who come to these parties have become interested in other lines of association activity.

Y. W. C. A. girls and their friends are deriving much pleasure from evening trips in the new auto-bus. The girls will have the entire bus each Monday evening. Those who wish to go, should meet at the building at 7.30. The fare is 5 cents.

Roller skating is still quite popular. Any girl in Newark may have the use of the gym floor for skating at the cost of 5 cents if she brings her own skates or ten cents if the Y. W. furnishes them.

The board of directors held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday morning at the association.

Miss Ruth Crosby of Oberlin was an over Sunday guest of the association.

The High school camp fire will have a potato-bake at Horn's Hill Saturday afternoon. Those who go should be at the building at 1.30 sharp.

Junior camp fire girls will have a hike Saturday afternoon to South Newark. Girls will leave the association at 2 o'clock.

Special Notice—All girls and women of Newark are invited to the Bible class to be held on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 7.30. This class will be led by Rev. Tullis and will start May 13. On Tuesday evening, May 13, immediately after the Bible class taught by Rev. Tullis there will be an informal and very interesting report of the Richmond Biennial convention of the Y. W. C. A. given by Mrs. W. C. Miller, who was the delegate of the local association. This meeting will be open to any who wish to hear about the work of the association.

Preparations are being made for a glee club to begin in the near future. The term will include six sessions. There will be a competent instructor in charge. College songs, camp fire, popular and religious music will be studied. This class is open to any girl who wishes to know some of the best songs.

You will receive a gift or benefit from a friend whom you are in danger of misunderstanding. You are warned against too hasty judgment, for by acting in accordance with your highest thoughts you will meet with happiness.

Those born today will have worldly qualities which will cause them to mount high on the ladder of fortune. Influential friends will help them, but their greatest satisfaction and highest influence will come from an interest in the less fortunate.

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

ONE day, when Mr. Jones returned with what his weekly toil had earned, he found his little wife in tears and mood not suited to her years. It seemed the cook had bade "adieu," likewise the washerwoman, too.

Gold Dust as Strike Breaker

At first within the House of Jones there followed sad despondent moans. No hopeful word could reconcile, no homed kiss inspire a smile. "I never knew before," said she, "how horrid household cares could be."

"Upon my word I'm up at six and working still at midnight ticks. I scrub and run and wash and shine to keep the little things in line, and yet around me here and there I see undone another share. I almost feel as if I'd like to join the other ones on Strike. Some morning try it—get a mop; go through from cellar to the top, and I will venture you must see, the greater burdens fall on me."

Now Mr. Jones was passing wise and later, sprang a glad surprise. Through friends who praised the "GOLD DUST WAY," he brought a package home one day.

From tears to sunshine, Wife now has found the good of "Knowing How" and striking servants fail to stir, the placid calm content of her.

BOWDEN-BUTLER.
A very pretty wedding with all the appointments in pink and white, was solemnized at the Butler home in Eddy street on Thursday evening, when the marriage of Miss Louise M. Butler to Mr. Howard Bowden took place.

The hour was 5:30 o'clock and at that time, to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by the bride's sister, Miss Katherine Butler, the bridal party entered the parlor where the service was read. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Henrietta Butler, while the groom's best man was Mr. Charles Butler. Rev. Robert Bowden of Croton, brother of the groom, officiated.

The bride was gowned in ivory tinted messaline with trimmings of Venice lace. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The bride's maid's gown was of pink messaline with overdress of pink chiffon, and her bouquet was of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served only the immediate families and a few friends being present. The color effect in the dining room was of pink and white, the centerpiece being a basket of pink and white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowden left for a short wedding trip. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Butler of Eddy street, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowden of North Tenth street. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Bowden will be at home to their friends at the Bowden home in Tenth street. The groom is employed by the Wehrle company, as a molder.

HAMILTON-HILLIARY.
At eleven o'clock Thursday morning Dr. Sparks joined in marriage Prof. Paul G. Hamilton and Miss Mary Hilliary. Mr. Hamilton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Hamilton of Brownsville, and is the superintendent of the high school of that village. He is a young man of sterling worth and a member of one of the very best families of the county. His bride is the accomplished daughter and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hilliary of near Hanover. Following the ceremony the young people took a Pennsylvania train east for a wedding trip at the conclusion of which they will be at home to their friends at the home of the bride's parents. A host of friends join in best wishes.

The interest of the Women's clubs of the city in the Public Library has ever been manifested in the most practical and substantial manner. Today, some new, late fiction, for the summer's reading, has been placed upon the "pay book" shelves by the Unity Reading Circle. These books will rent at five cents a week, until they earn a sufficient sum of money to pay for themselves when they will be placed upon the free shelves, and the money thus earned used for the purchase of another supply.

This plan was tried out by the Progressive club most successfully, last spring, furnishing the library with the greater portion of its fiction for the year.
Below will be found a list of the books purchased by the Unity Reading Circle. Novels are sweets. Recommendation is also made with the sweets the reading of more substantial books, such as history, biography, science and travel, of which the library has a large supply, all free to the public, for the asking.

DEATH OF INFANT.
Carlos Clyde Ross, the three-days-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis C. Ross, 528 Prior avenue, died Friday morning. Burial took place in the Two Ways of Boosting.

HERE are two boosters of early rising—roosters and birds.
Before Mademoiselle Dawn has fully decided to get up, the rooster arises and announces in a raucous voice the joys of early rising.
Anathemas, hair brushes, shoes—nothing stops him from cockadoodling all over the landscape the happiness to be found in arising before the sun. As the dawn mounts in the East, so does his voice rise to heaven. He flaps and chortles and struts, as he vociferously asserts that early rising has every other joy in the universe beaten to a standstill.
And at last, weary, wrathful, though unconvinced, we arise, not for any joy in rising, but with the murderous intent of making that rooster figure as the piece de resistance of next Sunday's dinner.
How differently does a bird boost early rising?
He tilts on a swaying bough, and in the misty, gray, half-light, chirps and twitters a bit to clear his throat and make sure of his high C.
Then all at once, he pours out a flood of melody that ripples and rises and falls, till all the air is full of sweetness.
And Mademoiselle Dawn flings on her draperies of rose and lavender and gold, and hurries forth that she may not miss a single note of that wondrous melody.
And with joy you listen, until you too are convinced that there is no pleasure in the world like being up and about in the early morning; and you also hurriedly arise and fling on your garments and go forth to enjoy the new day.
And being filled with peace and content, you sniff the fresh pure air with pleasure. You drink in the morning odors of grass and tree and flower, so different from the flavor of the later day when the sun is high. You feast your eyes on the sparkling diamonds strewn lavishly over the grass. You let your gaze wander to the flush in the East, and on up to the blue beginning to appear above.
And as the tiny member of nature's grand opera troupe flutters away, you wish there was some way to thank it for having lured you forth to enjoy the morning.
Both are boosters. But how different are their methods and how different their results.
Is there anyone who has been awakened by a pompous rooster under his window who didn't want to kill that rooster?
Is there anyone who has been awakened by the thrill of a bird who didn't feel a thrill of love and tenderness for the tiny songster, and did not thoroughly enjoy the melody it so prodigally poured forth?
Even though in neither case may we get up, how much more does the one convince us of the beauty and delight of the dawn than does the other.

AIR CRAFT IN NAVY WARFARE.

Hydroaeroplane Demonstrates Usefulness in Atlantic Maneuvers.

Washington.—The hydroaeroplane in naval warfare has scored its first victory in connection with maneuvers of the Atlantic battleship fleet in Cuban waters by discovering a supposed enemy far at sea and directing the fleet to the place.

Lieutenant John H. Towers and Ensign Godfrey de C. Chevalier of the navy aviation corps put out from Guantanamo bay just before sunset to scout for the supposedly hostile fleet. Weather conditions were bad, there being frequent rain squalls, three of which the aviators passed through successfully.

After proceeding seaward some distance the fleet of the enemy, composed of five battleships and two scouts, was discovered fifteen miles away. The aviation officers took observations of its location, course and speed without being detected. They returned to Guantanamo bay at dusk and reported to Rear Admiral Butler, commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet, who ordered out the torpedo boat destroyer flotilla, which engaged the enemy within an hour.

ONE WHO "CAME BACK."

Bluteau Escaped From Prison, but Mother Made Him Return.

Paris.—Pierre Bluteau, who escaped from the Sante, returned to the prison voluntarily.

He had some trouble getting back. When he rapped at the gate the turnkey gazed at him and asked:

"Who are you?"

"I am Bluteau," was the answer.

"And who, pray, is Bluteau?" the turnkey inquired.

"I am the young fellow that escaped, don't you know?" continued the knocker.

With apparent reluctance the door swung open and Bluteau re-entered.

Once within, he was joyously welcomed as the "prodigal son returned."

Supper was over, but the warden sent out for a special meal, and there was a reunion feast.

According to Bluteau, his mother persuaded him to return to the prison. He escape was accomplished in overalls, in the disguise of a stoker.

"Let me out; I'm in a hurry," he said. So they let him out as quickly as possible.

TURTLE ONCE USED IN LEPROSY CURE

Patients Bathed in Creature's Blood at Cape Verde.

Paris.—A French historian in connection with the alleged cure for tuberculosis now being advanced by Dr. F. F. Friedmann in the United States calls attention to the little known fact that the medicinal use of the sea turtle is by no means of recent date.

On July 8, 1483, King Louis XI. of France sent George the Greek, master mariner, to the Cape Verde islands to seek "various things touching nearly to the well being and health of our person." The Cape Verde islands had the reputation of possessing a cure for leprosy, a report of which had been brought back to France by a traveler from the coast of Guinea at about the time King Louis was in declining health.

According to the recital of this traveler, the big sea turtles were caught by the islanders when they came out on the beach at low tide to feed. They were at once killed and their blood caught in large tubs. Persons afflicted with leprosy bathed in the blood and afterward ate of the turtle's flesh.

This treatment was kept up for two years, at the end of which time the patients were usually completely cured of the dreadful disease.

This record would tend to show that Louis XI. was a leper. That such was the case had been rumored by chroniclers, but the reason of the expedition to the Cape Verde islands, now published for the first time, throws much light on the psychology of Louis XI. his ill humor and his seditious avoidance of mankind during the last days of his life. The wretched man evidently believed himself smitten with leprosy. He was, however, never fated to test the efficacy of the sea turtle remedy, for he died Aug. 30, 1483, before the return of the expedition.

START YOUR BABY WITH SOUND HEALTH

Regular Bowel Movement from Childhood on Forestalls Future Serious Diseases.

We cannot all start life with the advantages of money but every child born is entitled to the heritage of good health. Through unfortunate ignorance or carelessness in the feeding of a baby its tiny stomach may become deranged. The disorder spreads to the bowels and before the mother realizes it the two chief organs on which the infant's comfort and health depend are causing it great suffering. If the condition is allowed to continue grave ailments often result.

There is, however, no occasion for alarm, and the sensible thing to do—but it should be done instantly—is to give the baby a small dose of a mild laxative- tonic. In the opinion of a great many people, among them such well-known persons as the parents of Dixie Dudley, Magnolia, Ark., the proper remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mrs. Earl Dudley writes: "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best medicine I ever used. It cured my baby of flatulency colic when the doctors failed; it cured my husband of constipation. My home shall never be without Syrup Pepsin." It is a pleasant-tasting laxative, which every person likes. It is mild, non-gripping, and contains that most excellent of all digestants, pepsin.

This remedy is especially intended for infants, children, women, old people and all others to whom harsh cathartics, salt waters, pills, etc., are distressing. In fact, in the common disorders of life, such as constipation, liver trouble, indigestion, biliousness, headaches, and the various other disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, nothing is more suitable than this mild laxative- tonic, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Two generations of people are using it today, and thousands of families keep it constantly in the house, for every member of the family can use it. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the size bought by families who already know its value. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist send your address—a postal will do—to W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

OMAHA DENIES TALE OF RED CROSS HELP

Cyclone City Objects to "Fake" Stories About Relief Given.

Omaha.—Relief to the value of $1,250,000 has been received for the benefit of the sufferers from Omaha's big Easter cyclone. This sum includes cost, supplies, labor, automobile and hospital service, tornado insurance and everything that was done for the victims to help them.

The biggest single item on the list is the $500,000 in tornado insurance carried by the losers. Insurance companies have been very liberal in their adjustments of losses and many homes in Omaha are now being rebuilt which otherwise would have remained in ruins.

The second largest item is that of cash contributed from all sources. This amounts to $470,000 and will undoubtedly reach the half million mark before the fund is closed. This $470,000 was raised almost entirely in Omaha itself. Many donations were sent in from Nebraska towns and the state of Nebraska contributed $40,000. New York city's donations amounted to $8,000. San Francisco, to which city Omaha was the first in the Union to send succor after the earthquake and fire, sent Omaha just $5.

This was an individual subscription from the editor of a labor paper. On the afternoon following the earthquake Omaha started a special train of supplies and provisions and a large amount of cash to San Francisco.

The great American Red Cross society has not aided Omaha to the extent of a single dollar, although Omaha hears frequently of subscriptions being handed to that institution for the benefit of the tornado sufferers. Omaha is not kicking against the Red Cross for nonassistance, but does object to the stories spread over the country telling of the quickness and speed with which the Red Cross leaped into Omaha and did wonderful deeds of relief.

BEEES KILL 200 PULLETS.

Honey Gatherers Also Give Auto Party a Hot Time.

Porterville, Cal.—Two hundred pullets belonging to W. F. Weems, a poultry raiser in the Plano district, were stung to death when a swarm of bees attacked them. The bees, which belong to the Kern County Land company, are brought to this district every year during the orange blossom season.

Besides the chickens which were killed, several score of others were so badly stung that they will also die.

After the bees had attacked the chickens they continued down the road and attacked an automobile party. The bees were so thick that after the car had emerged from the swarm the tonneau was covered with them.

DAMAGE SUIT FILED AGAINST OHIO ELECTRIC

Mary Campbell Asks $10,000 for Injuries Which She Claims She Sustained February 15.

Alleging that when a conductor on the Newark-Granville electric line "violently grabbed her and jerked her" onto the platform of a car, she sustained injuries from which she never can recover, Mary Campbell asks $10,000 damages from the Newark & Granville Electric Railway company and the Ohio Electric company.

The plaintiff's petition, filed in common pleas court Friday by Attorneys Smythe & Smythe, says that on February 15, last, she signalled a car to stop at Eighteenth street intersection of West Main, on the crossing. She says the car ran fifteen or twenty feet beyond the crossing where the level of the ground was much lower than at the crossing, so that she was unable to reach the step with her foot. She says the conductor grabbed her and violently jerked her on board the car.

Divorce Petition. Leroy Messer, is charged by his wife with being "insanely jealous" of her, refusing to allow her any women friends or even associating with her mother, wherefore she seeks a divorce.

In her petition filed Friday by Attorneys Smythe & Smythe in common pleas court, Mrs. Messer says they were married December 24, 1910. She says that when her husband struck her with his fist, in February, this year, she left him and has not lived with him since.

She alleges she was compelled to work to help support herself.

BACHACHE IS A DANGER SIGNAL

Kidney Troubles, Bladder Disorders, Rheumatism, and Serious Diseases Follow.

There are other symptoms, such as pains in the region of the kidneys, nervousness, dizziness, tired and worn-out feeling, weak bladder, painful, scaldy, or urinary troubles, which are just as dangerous, for the slightest kidney derangement if neglected may develop into the deadly Bright's Disease, Dropsy, or Diabetes.

It is not only dangerous, but needless, for you to suffer, and endure the tortures of these troubles, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly and surely ends all such misery.

There is no more effective remedy known for the cure of kidney, bladder trouble, and rheumatism, than this new scientific preparation, because it removes the cause. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the walls and linings, cleans out the clogged-up pores, neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid and waste matter, that lodge in the joints and muscles and cause those terrible rheumatic pains, and makes the kidneys filter the poison from the blood and drives it out of the system.

Three doses of Croxone a day, for a few days is often all that is ever needed to cure the worst backache or overcome disagreeable urinary disorders, and you can take it with the utmost confidence that nothing on earth will so quickly cure the worst case of kidney, bladder trouble, or rheumatism.

You will find Croxone different from all other remedies. There is nothing else like it. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. An original package costs but a trifle at any first class drug store. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.

You can remove your corn quickly with a 25c bottle, sold and recommended by druggists and W. A. Erman.

WILL DOUBLE THE FORCE AT NEW FACTORY

A. H. Youse, cigar manufacturer, whose new factory near Buckingham and Wallace streets was opened two weeks ago, already has 22 cigar and stogie makers at work and expects to double the force as soon as possible. The building is entirely new, well lighted and ventilated, making a pleasant place for the employment of workmen. At present the force has been kept busy making stogies but Mr. Youse expects to manufacture a line of fine cigars within the next few weeks. While much of the factory's product is handled in Newark, a large part of it is shipped to surrounding towns. Newark is rapidly becoming an important center in the cigar and stogie making industry.

BLIND 32 YEARS, SHE IS REGAINING SIGHT

Mother of Eleven Children, Has Only Seen One.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Mrs. Peter Berger, who became totally blind thirty-two years ago, after an operation for cataracts, is regaining her sight. She can now distinguish the forms of persons standing against the light and can see the rays of electric street lamps and lights in her home. Her physician says that soon she will see as clearly as ever.

Mrs. Berger is the mother of eleven children. She has seen only one of them. That was the eldest son, who died twelve years ago. Since she became blind she has attended to all her household duties and cared for her children. Mrs. Berger said:

"I have prayed nightly and during the day that my sight shall be restored so I could see my children before I passed from this earth."

"They have never refused to obey me and have treated me with the greatest of kindness. Some of them are married. I have often wondered how the children appeared and even at times have pictured each of their faces in my mind. I am sure that I will not be disappointed in my first sight of them."

Mrs. Berger said that she could clearly make out the outlines of people's forms, but was unable to distinguish their features.

REPAYS FRIEND HE ROBBED.

But Not Until Twenty-six Years Have Passed By.

Louisville.—The stricken conscience of an aged man in Germany was responsible for the return of German bank notes amounting to nearly $1,000 American money to Nicholas Wermelster of this city, who was robbed of that amount at his old home in Metz, Germany, twenty-six years ago.

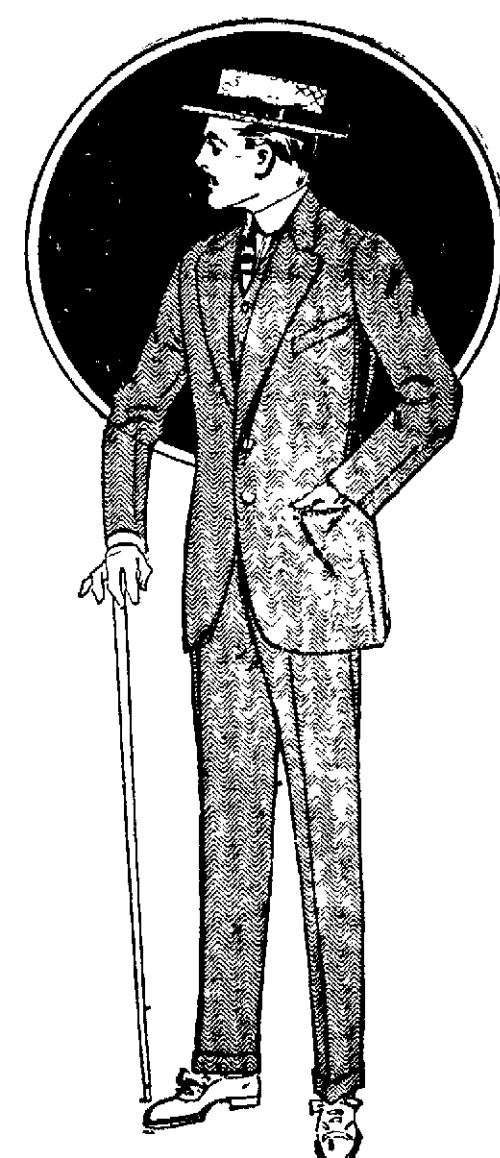

The letter inclosing the notes was dated March 10, 1913, the anniversary of the theft, and was unsigned. Although the writer referred to himself as a "trusted friend who betrayed the confidence of your household," Mr. Wermelster declared he was unable to identify him.

Rooster Sits In For Hen.

Columbus, Ind.—Fred Ortel, caretaker at the City hospital, has a hen which seemed to want to sit, but she persisted in leaving her nest. Becoming disgusted with her unmotherly conduct, the rooster took the nest and proceeded to sit on it. Noting the rooster's steady habits, Ortel placed a setting of eggs under it a few days ago, and so far it has proved faithful to its trust, leaving the nest only for food and drink.

The upstart doesn't always rise to the occasion.

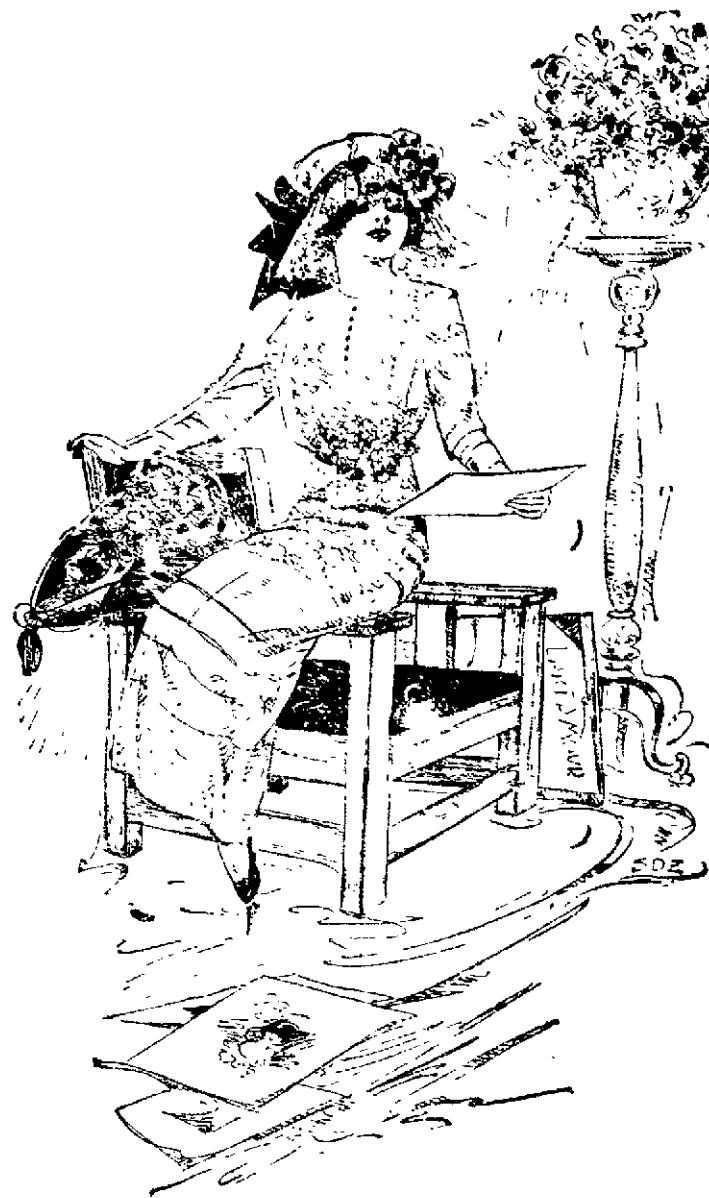

Lucky is the man who doesn't believe in luck.

REPORT ON FRIEDMANN.

experiments are underway. The bacillus has been found to be an acid-fast organism, having properties quite different from those of any tuberculosis bacillus with which we are acquainted. It appears to be identical with an organism cultivated from a few loop-fulls of the material used for injection which Dr. Friedmann permitted us to place on culture media in his presence. We requested Dr. Friedmann to furnish us with a large amount of this material for examination but this he has declined to do. We can state however, that living bacilli are being injected by the intramuscular and intravenous method, although we are ignorant of what medium they are suspended in or what additional substance or substances may be contained in the final mixture.

The report covers exhaustively the history of the Friedmann "cure" so far as the facts have been available to the public health service from the time of its announcement in Berlin in November, 1912, and reveals the efforts of the public health service to get better material from Dr. Friedmann for its investigation.

On the whole Dr. Friedmann's reluctance to furnish certain details "were not satisfactory from a scientific standpoint" but the report says "in view of the great importance of the matter to tuberculosis patients throughout the country and in the hope of a valuable remedy might have at last been found to not only cure tuberculosis patients but to prevent the disease, the conditions imposed by Dr. Friedmann were accepted. An additional reason for taking advantage of opportunities to make every study possible was the assurance by Dr. Friedmann of its harmlessness when injected into human beings."

One of the conditions imposed by Dr. Friedmann, according to the report was that he would furnish detailed information of the methods of preparing his remedy when the public health board recognized favorable results in patients. The board found that under all the conditions imposed it would have opportunity only to study a culture of the bacteria said to be used in some way by Dr. Friedmann in the preparation of his treatment to test its pathogenicity on the lower animals and observe the effect of treatment by him of tuberculosis patients with his proposed remedy. These limitations, the investigators found unsatisfactory from the scientific standpoint.

The report is careful to say that Friedmann's reticence has in no way been allowed to interfere with the judgment of the board of the effects which it has observed.

finished as the rest being conducted in the hygienic laboratory here and the observations of the persons inoculated will be continued.

Immediately after the presentation of the public health service report, a resolution was unanimously adopted, declaring it to be the judgment of the association that "no specific cure for tuberculosis has yet been discovered to warrant the confidence of the public. The resolution commended that all present methods of treatment be continued. Dr. Friedmann was not mentioned by name in the resolution.
